Affinity Diagram

Evidence of learning and improvement

- Applies learning in daily life
- Makes better decisions in real situations
- Talks about what they learned
- Learning continues outside the app (real-life discussion after the session)
- Improved communication kills
- happy when doing task or getting something right
- Attempts to read simple words
- Interacts better with others

Reasons children lose interest or disengage

- Loses interest under too much pressure
- Loses interest when it feels like homework
- Loses interest when sessions are too long
- Loses interest when they don't like the app
- Loses interest when content becomes difficult
- Doesn't understand how to use the app
- Loses interest when tired
- Loses interest when tasks are unclear
- Switches to another app when bored
- Loses interest due repetition

Learning goals and objectives

- Learn drawing
- Learn English language
- Learn letters
- Learn coloring
- Learn numbers
- Improve focus
- Learns shapes and basic concepts
- Develop social skills
- Learn animals

Desired app features and design

- age-appropriate, without any external or unsafe content.
- Educational apps that are fun so he can learn while enjoying them
- Simple to use
- Attractive colors and visuals
- Safe for children
- Supports learning through interaction (tap, drag)
- No ads / avoids annoying ads
- Wants mindful and appropriate content
- Needs simple value-based learning

Learning sources and methods

- Engages with cartoon-style content
- Interested in competitive/ action games
- Prefers fast-paced content
- Continues when content is enjoyable
- Engages with games and activities
- Likes interactive activities
- Motivated by rewards (stars, sounds)

Child engagement patterns and preferences

- Uses apps after lunch
- no specific
- Uses apps after breakfast (12–2 PM)
- Uses apps as a reward
- Uses apps mainly on weekends
- Uses apps after kindergarten
- Uses apps before bed (6–10 PM)

App usage timing and context

- Uses apps after lunch
- Uses apps after breakfast (12–2 PM)
- Uses apps mainly on weekends
- Uses apps after kindergarten
- Uses apps before bed (6–10 PM)
- no specific

Preferred content types

- coloring apps
- games with sounds and animals
- Engages with educational songs
- Uses apps with animal sounds
- Youtube
- Prefers learning through games
- educational games,
- Prefers learning through videos
- Prefers learning through interactive activities
- Values variety in learning formats
- watching cartoons
- listening to songs.
- Playing games

Parent intervention strategies

- Re-explains or changes the way content is presented
- Forces the child to complete the task
- Uses rewards (gifts) as motivation
- Turns tasks into games
- Gives small rewards

Challenges in teaching and learning

- Difficulty simplifying information
- Child forgets information quickly
- Child prefers playing over learning
- Difficulty connecting learning to real life
- Hard to keep child engaged for long
- Child loses focus quickly
- Parent lacks time
- Uses app to avoid other tasks
- Child struggles to understand concepts

How children interact with learning content

- Uses apps to revise learning
- Child learns by imitation
- Prefers active participation in learning
- Learns colors through activities
- Sings along with content
- Believes children learn better through interaction
- Imitates sounds

Parent monitoring

- Wants quiz results sent to parent
- Needs parent progress reports